Although a little late starting we feel confident with our Harness and Wagon, and the Range will certainly give us the heat and the race will be ours.

Every cash purchaser will receive a ticket for every dollar's worth of goods bought at our store (also paid on account) which will entitle the holder to one chance in the drawing of either the above articles, so that you have three chances instead of one. Local Expositions.

Sunday is Easter.

Remember the Stallion Show April 17th.

Considerable sickness in this vicinity lately.

Farmers, beware of swindlers this spring.

W. J. Moore, of Melvin, was in the village Tuesday.

This month has five Thursdays, five Fridays and five Saturdays.

A. W. Ferguson and family spent last week with their friends at Almont.

John Gleason visited his brother Cornelius at Mt. Pleasant the past week.

Thos. Weston, of Wilmet, Tuscola Co., has been in the village the past week.

Mrs. D. G. Williams has lately added a brand new piano to the furnishings of her house.

Dr. C. V. High has been up near Bay City looking for an opening to practice his profession.

Edward Koeffer, engineer at S. O. Welch & Son's mill, has been under the weather of late.

Henry Pearce is clerking for A. H. Braidwood at present. He makes a very efficient clerk.

Lew McDonald is again engaged in S. O. Welch & Son's roller mill, having been laid off for a time.

Miss Lizzie Crawford, who has been visiting her cousins, the Misses Welch, left for Dakota yesterday.

Miss Lydia Holder will close a successful term of school in the Carless district to-morrow (Friday).

MONEY TO LOAN—$500, $1,000, $1,500 or $2,000 to loan on farm security. Inquire of Avery Bros., Lawyers, Port Huron, Mich. 46th.

Del T. Sutton, the "bay" haired representative of the H. H. Thorp Mfg. Co., Cleveland, Ohio, called on the EXPOSITOR Monday.

Some one has called editors king-makers, because they give to men that fame which enables them to attain positions of power.

Jas. H. Moore, of Brockway, has purchased a house and lot in the village and will move with his family to this place in the near future.

Will J. Rapley and wife, of Minden City, have been the guests of Thos. Rapley and family and other friends in these parts the past week.

Miss Pearl Mathews, who has been attending the convent in Port Huron, returned home on Saturday evening to spend her Easter vacation.

Newton Clark and family returned from Tennessee last week completely disgusted with the south. The country there did not agree with them.

Our friend and former fellow townsman Jas. McArthur, of Cass City, was in the village the fore part of this week visiting his brother Donald and other friends.

C. A. Wells & Co. have dissolved partnership, O. P. Chamberlain retiring and C. A. Wells continuing in the business, notice of which appears in another place.

The longer we run a newspaper and write about people and events, the more we realize how utterly impossible it is to scratch every man on the spot where he itches the most.

Rain a week ago Monday and Tuesday, snow the following day and freezing the next day left the roads in very bad condition, and continued snow and rain this week has made them much worse.

Wear & Paisley had their office neatly carpeted this week. Any man who can successfully put down carpet is a very desirable life partner, and as Will is single and this is leap year, we look forward to interesting developments in the future. Who will be the lucky lady?

Next Monday is town meeting. Bear in mind the stallion show April 17th.

H. F. Leonard is down with the mumps.

Cart Holden visited in Brown City this week.

Mrs. Presley is at present quite ill at her home in this village.

Election tickets and slips printed on short notice at this office.

We feel a little bashful about saying so, but we still take wood on subscription.

Charles Dewey, of Melvin, made this office a call while in the village Wednesday.

Rev. C. W. Barnum is at present conducting a series of revival meetings in the M. E. Church.

Prof. Mills, who used to hold forth in this vicinity with his stereoscopic car, is in town at present.

The tuition from foreign pupils attending the public school in this village since Jan. 1st, 1888, is $89. A good showing.

FOR SALE OR RENT—A good farm of 50 acres, near Brockway Centre. For terms call on E. H. Drake, Brockway Centre, Mich.

The Misses Bessie and Minnie Welch entertained a small company Tuesday evening in honor of their cousin, Miss Lizzie Crawford.

Besides the officers mentioned in the election notice in this issue, there is one more to be elected, a Justice of the Peace for three years, to fill a vacancy.

D. Drake offers his house and lot on Kennebec street for sale. It is a desirable residence and can be bought cheap. Enquire at the farm north of the station.

Every citizen who has the best interests of his township at heart, should come out and vote for men that will do what is right, regardless of party.

Elder J. H. Paton will preach in the A. C. Chapel Sunday afternoon and evening. Subject for the afternoon, "Our Reasonable Service;" for the evening, "The More Excellent Way."

Jas. Miller, of Middlesex Co., Ont., Importer of Macgregor Yets, is visiting the owners of that celebrated Clydesdale stallion at present. He is a first-class horseman and a fine man indeed.

Bondy & Johnston, Port Huron's popular merchants in the dry good and clothing line, have a change of adv. in this issue. Readers when in Port Huron be sure and call in to see these gentlemen.

The Ullmann & Philpott Mfg. Co., have an adv. in this issue which every person who intends using paints this spring should read. The quality of their paints are guaranteed, when properly applied.

Messrs. Sterling & Adams, of Mt. Pleasant, who have been in these parts for the past week, purchased the celebrated Clydesdale Stallion A. I. King of the West Jr. from Phil. McDougall and will take it to Mt. Pleasant with them. A 1 Jr. was imported by Wm. Hodgins and has travelled in this vicinity for the past four seasons. We are certain that the farmers will regret seeing him leave as many of them were intending using him the coming season.

Holden Bros. will distribute their presents soon, as the tickets are all given away, in the following manner: 2,000 duplicate tickets will be placed in a box. The first drawn out will take the harness, the fifth the range, and the one hundredth will take the wagon. Parties holding tickets will please take care of them until articles are claimed, as another drawing will take place 30 days from the first, if articles are not redeemed by that time.

All see the advantage in advertising in starting a business and its helpfulness in getting a new enterprise well on its feet. Not all, however, remarks a contemporary, understand just why it should not be dropped, or at any rate, why its proportion cannot be greatly reduced after trade once gets moving to a proprietor's doors. One reason why he must keep on making his usual announcements is drawn from the conditions of commerce in our day. There was a time when perhaps a man's sign over his door sufficiently called attention to his business, and in connection with his local reputation in the month of his neighborhood, placed him prominently in the public eye. Such a time could only be when nobody did more than that—when that was the course pursued by dealers generally. To-day, however, attention is called only when it is compelled; so many other dealers are placing themselves before the public gaze, that he will never be seen if he does not get in line with them—Ex.
